

TRIVIA CRACK

DATE NIGHT

THERE'S NOTHING TRIVIAL ABOUT IT... YOUR MARRIAGE IS WORTH BELIEVING IN!

believe
in your
US

When you got engaged, you believed the two of you would make a great US. While your US may be greater at times than others, it's important to always believe in your US. And believing in your US begins and ends with believing in each other. That's what this date night is all about—no therapy—just fun and connection and letting your spouse know that you believe in them. Take this date step-by-step, but feel free to customize it to make it work for your unique US.

the RULES

- Take a break from talking about the usual suspects— money, kids, in-laws. This is not a time to take care of housekeeping, this is time for your US.
- Flirt. Be considerate, kind, relaxed and a great listener. Act as if you are still trying to win him/her over.
- As much as humanly possible, stay off technology. Only text or take a call if it is an emergency. Everyone and everything will be okay. (People use to leave their homes all the time without phones, and they lived to tell about it.)
- In many relationships, there is a talker and a non-talker. If you are married to a non-talker, when he/she talks tonight, they might not do it as well as you. So believe the best in them as they find the words.

Using the theme of Trivia Crack, make a date night around one or more of the game's categories. Here's some ideas:

- Sports - putt putt, bowling, do a 5k together, ice skating, fishing
- Arts - go to a play (Koger Center or Fine Arts Center), cooking class, pottery studio (The Mad Platter has date nights)
- History - tour historic sites, make it a night away in one of SC's historic cities
- Geography - visit a nearby attraction or town you've never visited
- Science - museum, the zoo and do one of the special tours, a planetarium, watch a science fiction movie, desert under the stars
- Entertainment - if you watch a movie make a theme out of the night around the movie, mystery dinner theater, play Trivia Crack and do best 2 out of 3 with stakes for the loser

On the way to dinner, or to whatever you may be doing on this date, play a little game called . . . WHAT DO YOU BELIEVE?: (you can find the answers at bwccamden.com/spark under Date Nights)

- Do you believe that the Great Wall of China is the only man-made object you can see from space?
- Do you believe that a space suit costs more than $20 million dollars?
- Do you believe that Betty White is older than sliced bread?
- Do you believe that a beaver lived without its head for 18 months?

- Do you believe there are more fake flamingos in the world than real flamingos?
- Do you believe the last time the Cubs won the World Series before 2016, women didn't have the right to vote?
- Do you believe that the national animal of Ireland is the unicorn?
- Do you believe you can't hold your nose and hum?
- Do you believe that every 45 minutes, we take more pictures than all of humanity in the 19th century?
- Do you believe that the movie Titanic cost more to make than the actual ship (Titanic) that sank?

Once you arrive at dinner, order what you believe your spouse will want. (If your spouse gets it wrong, you get it right by not saying anything about it.)

As you are waiting for your food, or at the beginning of your meal, complete the following statements: (If your spouse's answers are not all you dream them to be, still be thankful for the heart that tried.)

- I believe one of the best parts of your personality is...
- I believe one of our best moments was...
- I believe one of our funniest memories together was...

DARE YOU

Over dinner, try to make the server believe something crazy. i.e. that you are related to them, that you have 12 kids, that you are way older or way younger than you are. Make sure they know you were kidding and then tip until it hurts. The combination of fun and a good tip makes marriage look good.

HAVE FUN!

DON'T STOP BELIEVING!

- Write an encouraging note to let the other one know you believe in them.
- Take a "couplie" and then post it on social media using #bwcdates. Also use it for the wallpaper on your phone and/or computer to remind you that every US is worth believing in.
